Ref: Volcanic Ash Disruption in Europe – Jade Flight Schedule

Dear Customer,

We earlier communicated details of changes to Jade Cargo's operating schedule which resulted from closures of airports and airspace associated with the volcanic ash disruption in Europe.

Prognosis for normal resumption of air services within the next 48 hours are a little bit more positive. We therefore return to you with indication of planned adjustments to our operating schedule.

The following Jade Cargo flights to/from Europe (local time at origin) will be operating:

- JI7417/20APR PVG/BCN
- JI7408/21APR BCN/PVG

Jade Cargo is actively engaged in managing the situation towards ensuring safety for our operating crews and minimizing disruption to our customers.

Unfortunately, relevant authorities are not able predict with any certainty when affected airspace and airports will return to normal operation. Accordingly, further cancellations and delays are possible.

Jade Cargo will update its customers and partners concerning further disruption to our operating schedule as the situation progresses.
